NINETEEN HUNDRED SIXTY-NINE

Sharon Farabee

to a girl who I know is a brate and a nut, crazy and out of her <sup>mind</sup> ~~sense~~ (but) she is cute, sweet and nice and a friend to me

P.S. good luck with Shelby and remember Kenny!

Love

Mark

Thompson

To a great girl with whom I've had a ball with in Glee CLUB!
You are very sweet and have a good personality.

Best of Luck,
Susan Haney

Robin,
you are a very nice girl.
Best wishes in the future years.

Afa,
Jean
Parriak

Robin,
I sure wish you were in the ninth grade instead of the eighth grade, then
you could have fun like we do. Good luck and pass your grade.

Dear Robin
it's been nice knowing you. You are a very sweet and pretty girl.
I hope you have good luck in the following years.

Love always
Randy Bangor

Love,
Jury

To a friend who is might pass her grade

Robin & son

YesterdayYesterdayYesterdayYesterday

A black and white photograph capturing a group of students in mid-20th-century attire as they descend a wide set of stairs outside a brick building. The students, a mix of young men and women, are dressed in sweaters, blouses, skirts, and trousers. Some are carrying books or papers. The building's facade is made of brick, with large windows visible in the background. The stairs have a metal railing, and the overall scene suggests a school environment.

. . . all my troubles seemed being glad of life because it gives you the chance to love, to work, to play and to wonder at the stars

so far away

being satisfied with your possessions but not contented with yourself until you have made the best of them despising nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness and to fear nothing except cowardice being governed by your admirations rather than by your disgusts coveting nothing that is your neighbor's except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners thinking seldom of your enemies, often of your friends . . .

Henry van Dyke

. . . now it looks as though looking back from so far away pondering and weeping in short dismay memories like the sun's golden rays we shall remember our Yesterday

they're here to stay . . .

. . . I Believe In Yesterday

Dedication . . .

of a friend who always has a warm smile to help complete a day of a person who has dedicated his life to serving others at AJHS of a sincere and wise individual who has given so much to so many

We, the Seniors of '69, dedicate Volume 29 of the Aln-Ja-Hi to Mr.
David Blankenbecker.

Look to this day!
For it is life,
the very life of life.
In its brief course
lie all the varieties and realities of your existence:
The bliss of growth;
The glory of action;
The splendor of beauty;
For yesterday
is already a dream,
and tomorrow
is only a vision;
But today, well lived,
makes every yesterday
a dream of happiness,
and every tomorrow
a vision of hope

Robin, been nice snowing even though we don't see each other often. We ought to get together some this summer. We could have a ball. Keep up the good work with the boys, baby, and you'll do fine. Good luck with what's his name!

 You are some girl! You always seem to have a big smile for anyone who ever need it.
 I can't begin to tell you the fun I have had being your friend all these years. Why, just think of all the times we have had together.
 I hope ~~when~~ we can keep on having fun together monthly this summer (at the beach). Keep up the good work and may God bless you for ever & ever.

Robin,
Hope you don't get all the boys in the 9th grade before I get a chance. It's been nice knowing you. You've made the 8th grade real nice to be in when you are in the same room. Lots of luck in the future.

Robin, we had some fun in our times. Last year was really a lot of fun.
Remember the last day in the room?
Last year? Even though a few things happened
that messed it up,
last summer was fun and I'll never forget it. (unfortunately)
Be good this summer
and have fun.
The best of luck to you & Shelley.

Robin,

Its been alot of fun this year running around with you + Carol. Sure we've had our misunderstandings, but all best friends do. Next year we'll be split up in High school besides Carol will probably move. I hope in spite of the different classes we can stay best friends.

Its always sad to say good bye for the summer but I hope you have a nice one, + watch Shelly! HA!

See you next year in 9th grade. May God bless <sup>this year</sup> in every do.

Love Ya!

Robin,

I don't know what I would have done without you this year especially. Gettin' me up every morning, bringing me toast em's + drink. We've truly had fun even though we have fussed a lot!! It was all in friendship. I pray that you will find the best out of life and use it with your better judgement. Be good!
